Managing Retail

Alfamart as the main case: from a Jakarta trading house to Indonesia, the Philippines and Bangladesh.

HOLD THIS QUESTION

If the price is the same, why do people keep choosing the same store?

We test your answer on slide 28.

What is retailing?

Before the case, the definition every later slide builds on.

An Alfamart store: where strategy meets the shopper

> "Retailing includes all the activities involved in selling goods or services directly to final consumers for personal, non-business use."
>
> Kotler, Keller & Chernev (2022), Ch.16

1 A retailer's core role
Bridging producers and consumers: breaking bulk, offering assortment and convenience.

2 Where the shopper decides
The store, physical or digital, is where positioning, price and experience meet demand.

3 Why it matters here
Minimarkets are the decisive channel, and two chains dominate most of it.

KEY IDEA Retailing is where strategy becomes a sale. In Indonesia, that moment usually happens inside a minimarket.

Definition: Kotler, Keller & Chernev (2022), Marketing Management 16e, Ch.16. *≈37% is the group's research figure; verify the source before presenting.

● QUIZ Which type is Alfamart?

Non-store retailing: online (Shopee, Tokopedia) · direct selling · vending · buying service

KEY IDEA Alfamart is a store retailer (convenience) that now also competes in non-store retailing through Alfagift.

Theory: store & non-store retailer typology and corporate retailing (KKC 2022, Ch.16). Examples are the group's classification.

OPENING · THE ALFAMART STORY

From a Jakarta trading house to Dhaka

Thirty-seven years of the same playbook: a small-store format, franchising and in-house distribution, now exported.

1989
Djoko Susanto, with Sampoerna, starts a trading & distribution firm in Jakarta. Roots: ALFA Toko Gudang Rabat.

1999
First Alfa Minimart opens in Karawaci, Tangerang.

2000s
≈1,300 stores across Java within six years; renamed Alfamart.

2009
IPO on the IDX as PT Sumber Alfaria Trijaya Tbk (AMRT), ≈3,000 stores.

2014
Enters the Philippines with SM Investments: first store in Cavite, June.

2025
Takes 70% of Lawson Indonesia. Philippines opens to franchising. Bangladesh JV announced.

2026

Target market & positioning

The retailer's first decision. Assortment, service, price and communication all follow who is served.

1. Quick shop
   Drinks & snacks → easy-access location on the daily route
2. Urgent need
   The item must be in stock → prioritise core lines
3. Home restock
   Choice & value → pack sizes, promos, Alfagift delivery

Minimarkets now reach small-town and rural roads

±40% of AMRT revenue comes from outside Java (H1 2026): close to people, even beyond the big cities.

Positioning: close, practical, relevant for daily needs.

● LIVE VOTE Why this store?

KEY IDEA Alfamart's positioning is built from shopping missions, not demographics: close and practical for daily needs.

Theory: target market & positioning (KKC Ch.16; STP Ch.6–7). Missions are a learning illustration, not Alfamart's official segmentation. Data: AMRT H1 2026.

KEY IDEA Same six levers, different philosophies: the next slides show how Alfamart pulls each one against its rivals.

Framework: retailer marketing decisions, Kotler, Keller & Chernev (2022), Ch.16. Alfamart examples are the group's application.

Service level & store atmosphere

How much help the store gives, and the physical mood that makes customers comfortable enough to buy.

Self-service — Limited service — Full service

Alfamart sits here: self-selection, staff help when needed, plus bill payment, top-ups and parcel services.

STORE ATMOSPHERE CHECKLIST

- Clear layout and signs: can I find it in seconds?
- Clean and bright: do I feel comfortable?
- Tidy checkout: is the queue still under control?
- Local themes are fine if the store stays easy to read.

Alfamart staff today

Alfamart store at head office

People are part of atmosphere. A flagship can look premium and still stay easy to read: that is the test.

KEY IDEA Service and atmosphere are part of the offer: fast, clean and readable beats fancy for daily missions.

Theory: levels of service & store atmosphere (KKC Ch.16; services Ch.9). Photos: social media / alfamart.co.id.

THEORY · KKC CH.16

Service levels & how retailers organize

Two book frameworks behind the case: four levels of service, and the forms of corporate retailing.

QUIZ What form is KopDes?

FOUR LEVELS OF SERVICE

Self-service
Customers find, compare and select on their own

Self-selection
Customers find goods, can ask for help

Limited service
More sales help and shopping assistance

Full service
Salespeople assist at every stage

Alfamart ≈ self-service / self-selection, plus bill-payment services.

CORPORATE RETAILING FORM	WHO ON OUR STREET
Corporate chain store 2+ outlets, common ownership	Company-owned Alfamart & Lawson stores
Voluntary chain Wholesaler-sponsored independents	Grocers supplied by wholesalers
Consumer cooperative Owned by its members	KopDes Merah Putih?
Franchise organization Franchisor + franchisees	Alfamart & Indomaret
Merchandising conglomerate Diversified lines, central control	AMRT group: Alfamart, Alfamidi, Lawson

KEY IDEA Both chains are franchise organizations running near-self-service stores. That theory explains their speed of scale.

Theory: levels of service & corporate retailing forms (KKC 2022, Ch.16). Mapping is the group's analysis.

Product assortment: breadth & depth

Minimarket shelves are narrow: adding variants in one category means cutting space for another.

Destination category: the category that makes people choose the store. For a minimarket, that is food.

71.5% of AMRT revenue comes from food

GROWTH, Q2 2026

Food	+7.3%
Non-food	+1.0%

9M 2026: media report AMRT's profit was again supported by the food segment.

KEY IDEA For a minimarket, food is the destination category: the reason people walk in.

Sources: broker research cited in media (2026); IDX Channel (Nov 2026). Concepts: breadth, depth, destination category (KKC Ch.16).

ACT 03 · SHELF

Procurement & private label

Keep stock at the right point; build the retailer's own brand. AMRT network: 38 DCs, 34 branches, 9 depots.

STOCK CONTROL

Too low	Right	Too high
Lost sales, unhappy shoppers	Item there, capital under control	Holding cost, expiry risk

Procurement tools (KKC): forecasting · stock control · allocation · direct product profitability

WHY RETAILERS BUILD PRIVATE LABELS

Higher margin · Differentiation · Bargaining power

THE QUALITY CHECK

2.0 / 5

★★☆☆☆

Average Health Star Rating of Alfamart, Indomaret and Super Indo private labels. Up to 98% of products high in fat, sugar or salt.

Private label supports margin, but only with quality assurance and trust.

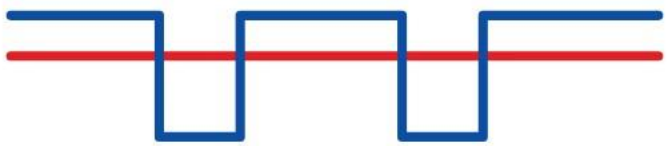

KEY IDEA Procurement keeps the promise "it's in stock"; private label lifts margin, if quality keeps up.

Sources: ATNi Indonesia Retail Assessment (Nov 2025); Panin Sekuritas (May 2026); broker research 2026. Theory: KKC Ch.16 procurement & private label.

Pricing: one item vs one basket

Price image is shaped by the price of memorable items, not by the whole basket.

EDLP VS HIGH-LOW

EDLP low, steady every day · High-low regular price + periodic discounts

BASKET	STORE A	STORE B
Milk	Rp18,000	Rp20,000
Bread	Rp17,000	Rp15,000
Soap	Rp15,000	Rp13,000
Total	Rp50,000	Rp48,000

PRICE IMAGE

Milk is cheaper at A, but the basket is cheaper at B.

Simulation for learning, not actual prices.

INCENTIVES & LOYALTY: A-POIN

Points from Alfamart and Alfagift. AMRT says 2025 growth came from transaction volume plus promos that keep prices attractive. Promotions are judged with margin and repeat purchase.

Wholesaling & distribution

Selling to buyers who resell or use goods for business. Alfamart's DCs run all nine wholesaler functions in-house.

Roots: ALFA Toko Gudang Rabat

Alfamart began as a wholesale-warehouse business, so the wholesaling DNA came first.

01 Buying & assortment	02 Selling & promoting	03 Bulk breaking
04 Warehousing	05 Transportation	06 Financing

KEY IDEA Both chains run wholesaler functions through in-house DCs. This logistics scale is the real moat.

THEORY · KKC CH.16

The wheel of retailing

New retailers enter low-margin, low-price and low-status, then add services, raise costs, and become open to the next low-price entrant.

1. Enter low: O!Save, KopDes
   Low price, low margin, no-frills basics
2. Add value: Alfamart & Indomaret today
   Fresh food, coffee, Lawson ready-to-eat, services, Alfagift
3. Trade up: hypermarkets & premium supermarkets
   Big footprint, higher costs: the "weakening middle" now under pressure

● QUIZ Who enters low today?

KEY IDEA The real risk: trading up without losing the everyday-value trust that new discounters are targeting.

Theory: the wheel of retailing hypothesis (KKC 2022, Ch.16). Positions are the group's analysis.

Who plays where, with what weapon

Alfamart among its rivals. Each one attacks with a different retail decision.

ALFAMART × LAWSON · MAIN CASE

SYNTHESIS · ALFAMART STRATEGY

Where Alfamart's retail system beats each rival

Every promise to the customer needs an operational decision behind it. Group analysis using the Ch.16 decisions.

RIVAL	THEIR EDGE	ALFAMART'S COUNTER	CH.16 LEVER
Indomaret	More stores, more franchisees	Regional scale (PH, BD), Lawson ready-to-eat, growing gross profit	Positioning, expansion
Hypermarket	One-stop, low unit price	Closer, faster for daily missions; Alfagift for bigger baskets	Location, target market
Supermarket	Fresh food & depth	Alfamidi / Lawson formats; narrow-but-right assortment	Assortment
O!Save	Lowest everyday price	Price image on key items, A-Poin, private label	Pricing, private label
KopDes M.P.	State backing, village reach	38 DCs, systems, franchise know-how	Procurement, wholesaling
Toserba lokal	Local loyalty, wide range	Standard look, payments & services, one member ID	Services, omnichannel
Warung / Madura	24 h, closeness, credit	Consistent stock & price, clean, cashless	Atmosphere, communication

KEY IDEA Alfamart wins because its seven retail decisions reinforce each other; each rival brings just one.

Group synthesis of KKC Ch.16 retailer marketing decisions; not an Alfamart internal assessment.

SYNTHESIS · EVIDENCE IN THE FINANCIALS

Does the strategy show up in the numbers?

AMRT, nine months to Sep 2026. Gross profit tests the health of pricing, assortment and private-label decisions.

REVENUE 9M 2026
Rp101.29T
▲ 7.21% YoY

GROSS PROFIT
Rp22.20T
▲ 9.35% · margin ≈21.9%

OPERATING PROFIT

▲ 7.89%

NET PROFIT TO OWNERS
Rp2.40T
▲ 3.80% · finance costs +35.8%

Regional expansion: the 2,000th Philippine store

Gross profit grew faster than revenue: pricing, mix and private label are working. Net profit lagged on higher finance costs.

KEY IDEA Growth is steady, not spectacular: ≈10% (2023–24) → 7.2% (2025) → 7.2% (9M 2026). New stores and new countries carry more of it.
